More than a third of parents with children under 18 were unable to meet their children's basic needs

Question: Have you personally ever been faced with the following situations because you were in a difficult financial situation (Base: Parents of children under 18)

